

“Fresh Looks at the 1948 Arab-Israeli War”

Benny Morris
Ben-Gurion University

Benny Morris is a history professor at Ben-Gurion University. He was a correspondent for the Jerusalem Post for 12 years. He has written many books including: The Birth of the Palestinian Refugee Problem (Cambridge UP: 1988), Israel's Border Wars 1949-1956 (Clarendon: 1993) 1948 and After (Oxford UP: 1990), Righteous Victims (Knopf: 1999), 1948: A History of the First Arab-Israeli War (Yale UP: 2008), and One State, Two States (Yale UP: 2009).

May 4

7:00 PM

Nasatir Hall 100, SDSU Campus

Co-sponsored by:

The Jewish Studies Program and Hansen Institute for World Peace, San Diego State University

Judaic Studies Program of University of California, San Diego