To Whom It May Concern:

The Center for Latin American Studies at San Diego State University would like to thank you for opening the doors of your organization to our students to acquire some valuable hands on experience and serve as a link between the University and the community.

Please take a few minutes to let us know about the experience.

1. Did the intern accomplish the required 150 hours to obtain credit?

2. If not, how many hours did she/he accomplish?

3. Was this internship experience valuable for your organization?

4. Would you welcome other Latin American Studies students to your internship program?

5. Other comments?
