.job openings

Educator III (Tour Guide)
Seasonal

To apply for this position please visit SeaWorldJobs.com

Pay Rate $10.28/hr.

Availability
• Must have 3 days of unrestricted availability, to include one weekend day, during the non-peak season and 4 days of unrestricted availability, to include one weekend day, during the peak season.

Hours
• Up to 40 hours per week during peak season (June 17th-September 2nd) and up to 28 hours per week during non-peak season.

Basic Job functions
• Enthusiastically represents SeaWorld by displaying a positive attitude, high level of energy and commitment to quality throughout all aspects of the job.
• Educates park guests, school groups, camp participants and private parties about marine animal information at animal exhibits throughout the park.
• Maintains and enforces the safety of the park guests and marine animals at exhibits throughout the park.

Principle Duties
• Disseminates marine animal information at animal exhibits on a microphone to park guests and school groups.
• Performs extemporaneous narrations.
• Answers guest questions concerning marine animals and the park.
• Promotes tour program and solicits patronage.
• Monitors the safety of park guests and marine animals at exhibits.
• May participate in the Sleepover program as a Counselor, Activity Leader and/or Coordinator.
• May conduct public and private tours.
• May conduct extemporaneous presentations about penguins.

Required Skills Knowledge, Education, and Training
• Must be at least 18 years of age.
• Must have a high school diploma and/or equivalent, and pass a pre-employment written test and microphone assessment.
• Must have a valid California driver’s license; visiting students and military must have valid driver’s license from state of residency and able to provide a copy of the DMV report.
• Must be able to complete a reading comprehensive quiz in person.
• Must have good public speaking skills and be comfortable speaking in front of large groups.
• Must be comfortable working with and around children of various ages.
• Must be able to work within close approximation to park animals.
• Must be able to sit, stand and/or walk for prolonged periods of time.
• Must be able to frequently lift and/or move up to 10 pounds and occasionally lift and/or move up to 40 pounds.
• Must be able to use mechanical devices including but not limited to sound systems with speaker, microphone (hand-held or head set) and voice projector.
• Must be able to work primarily outdoors while exposed to sunny, wet and/or humid weather conditions, and may occasionally work in a classroom-like setting.
• Must be able to work in an environment with moderate noise levels.
• Resume required.

SeaWorld San Diego is a drug free workplace. Employment is contingent upon passing a saliva sample drug test as well as a thorough background check. Reasonable accommodations may be made to enable employees to perform the essential functions of the job if necessary. The information listed is meant to inform you of the primary responsibilities of this position.