

MIDDLE SCHOOL OPTION: SPANISH

INTRODUCTORY SUBJECT MATTER AUTHORIZATION IN SPANISH (added to your multiple subject credential)

For students in the LIBERAL STUDIES SPECIALIZATION IN SPANISH (AY 2010-11)

If you would like to teach Spanish at the middle school level, as well as multiple subjects at the elementary level, in addition to a multiple subjects credential, you will need a total of 32 units of Spanish course work, with at least 3 units in the specific content areas as described below. The additional courses you complete to satisfy the requirements for the middle school authorization can be used as elective units for graduation (if necessary).

REQUIREMENTS:

Minimum of 32 total units; at least 3 units in each content area; grade of C or higher required.
(units can also count towards requirements in the prep for the major* and/or specialization^)

Content areas: (at least 3 units in each area)
