

PA 497: Investigation and Report
Professor Robert Stock
619-594-4068 Do not Email

Spring 2009

Goal:

The goal of this class is to research and write a ten to fifteen page formal paper. The paper can be on any topic within the field of Public Administration; however, the topic must be approved by the professor. Ideally, students will choose topics that fit within the professor's area of expertise.

Senior Thesis:

The steps to doing a successful senior thesis with Dr. Stock are as follows:

- 1) By the end of the third week (Feb. 11, 2009) students should visit Dr. Stock during his office hours. This will be a get acquainted session. It will also give the student a chance to being to choose a research topic.
- 2) By March 11, 2009 each student should bring an extensive outline and a bibliography to Dr. Stock's office. It must be brought to the office – email is not acceptable.
- 3) Failure to do either of the first two steps will have serious consequences for the student's final grade.
- 4) The final ten to fifteen page term paper is due in Dr. Stock's office (PSFA 176) on May 4, 2009. The paper must be written clear, concise English. It must have footnotes or endnotes and a full bibliography.
- 5) Please do not submit any written material by "e-mail".
- 6) If you have any communication that you need to make with Dr. Stock, please do so by phone (619-594-4060) or in person.

Dr. Stock wants you to write the best senior thesis that you are capable of writing. He wants you to get a good grade. He also wants you to write a paper that you will always be proud of.

PA 497: Investigation and Report
Professor Robert Stock
619-594-4068 Do not Email

Spring 2009

Goal:

The goal of this class is to research and write a ten to fifteen page formal paper. The paper can be on any topic within the field of Public Administration; however, the topic must be approved by the professor. Ideally, students will choose topics that fit within the professor's area of expertise.

Senior Thesis:

The steps to doing a successful senior thesis with Dr. Stock are as follows:

- 1) By the end of the third week (Feb. 11, 2009) students should visit Dr. Stock during his office hours. This will be a get acquainted session. It will also give the student a chance to being to choose a research topic.
- 2) By March 11, 2009 each student should bring an extensive outline and a bibliography to Dr. Stock's office. It must be brought to the office – email is not acceptable.
- 3) Failure to do either of the first two steps will have serious consequences for the student's final grade.
- 4) The final ten to fifteen page term paper is due in Dr. Stock's office (PSFA 176) on May 4, 2009. The paper must be written clear, concise English. It must have footnotes or endnotes and a full bibliography.
- 5) Please do not submit any written material by "e-mail".
- 6) If you have any communication that you need to make with Dr. Stock, please do so by phone (619-594-4060) or in person.

Dr. Stock wants you to write the best senior thesis that you are capable of writing. He wants you to get a good grade. He also wants you to write a paper that you will always be proud of.