

SAMPLE INFORMATION SYSTEMS PROGRAMS

(Catalog Years 2006, 2007, 2008)

FOUR SEMESTERS

This program is intended for students who do not work. It requires a commitment of a minimum of 40 hours a week for classes and homework.

Semester 1 IDS 306: Information Systems Analysis IDS 315: Business Applications Programming MGT 350: Management and Organizational Behavior FIN 323: Fundamentals of Finance BA 300: Ethical Decision Making in Business (1 unit)	Semester 2 IDS 380: Data Management Systems IDS 483: Networks & Data Communications IDS 302: Introduction to Operations Management MKT 370: Marketing Upper division GE
Semester 3 IDS 406: Information Systems Design IDS 396W: Reporting Techniques for Bus. Professionals IDS elective* Upper division GE	Semester 4 MGT 405: International Business Strategy & Integration or BA 404: Small Business Consulting IDS elective* IDS 492: Management of Information Systems Upper division GE

*IDS elective: Select from IDS 301, 375, 460, 481, 482, 515, 520. Please see an advisor in the IDS department for recommendations.

NOTE: You need a minimum of 120 units to graduate. If the units listed above plus your lower division units total less than 120, you will need to add electives (lower or upper division) to reach 120 units.

SIX SEMESTERS

This program is intended for students who work no more than 20 hours per week. It requires a commitment of a minimum of 30 hours a week for classes and homework.

Semester 1 IDS 306: Information Systems Analysis IDS 315: Business Applications Programming MKT 370: Marketing BA 300: Ethical Decision Making in Business (1 unit)	Semester 2 IDS 380: Data Management Systems MGT 350: Management and Organizational Behavior FIN 323: Fundamentals of Finance
Semester 3 IDS 406: Information Systems Design IDS 302: Introduction to Operations Management Upper division GE	Semester 4 IDS 396W: Reporting Techniques for Bus. Professionals IDS 483: Networks and Data Communications Upper division GE
Semester 5 IDS elective* IDS 492: Management of Information Systems Upper division GE	Semester 6 MGT 405: International Business Strategy & Integration or BA 404: Small Business Consulting IDS elective*

*IDS elective: Select from IDS 301, 375, 460, 481, 482, 515, 520. Please see an advisor in the IDS department for recommendations.

NOTE: You need a minimum of 120 units to graduate. If the units listed above plus your lower division units total less than 120, you will need to add electives (lower or upper division) to reach 120 units.