dear Annie,

I told you that I got angry when I first learned that you were going to go stay with the people's temple, and I guess you heard me say that, but you must not have listened when I went on to say that I wasn't angry long, I stopped and thought of how sensible you are and I stopped being mad. I know that you won't be fooled in People's Temple, either way, and I trust your judgement. You can decide if they're really good or really frauds. Right now the whole thing makes me uneasy, the faith healing especially, as you know, but as I said when you were here (were you listening?), if you stay there half a year and still say they're o.k., I'll know they're o.k. That doesn't mean that I'm going to come practice in Ukiah if I graduate from med school. I would be somewhat redundant, to say the least. However, I will refer all my incurable cases to Mr. Jones, ~~xxxxxx~~ from wherever we are.

You're very nice to have around, and we were sorry to have you leave with John and Barbara. I would have tried to get you to stay with us, as you'd planned before, but I thought you knew what you were doing. You'll always be welcome to stay with us however long you want to.

Well, I've got to get back to my calculus. School seems much better ^{this year} ~~now~~, the stuff I'm learning in Organic Chemistry applies to poison control and the math is like a good game of scrabble. Tell us about Ukiah.

love, PAT
