Post Office: Coronado
1955-1962

A small amount of material. Examples are: copy of a letter (12/21/59) from Wilson to Spring Valley constituent C.H. Martin re/ concern about Post Office in Coronado; letters (3/59) from constituent Francis P. Mulcahy, Wilson & Verne Scoggins (Regional Operations Dir., Post Office Dept.) re/ Mr. Mulcahy's complaints about the "deplorable mail delivery situation in Coronado" and the use of what he termed "Golf Carts" to deliver the mail. These were "Cushman mailsters" that saved the department approximately $10,000 a year according to Mr. Scroggins; letters & "Postal Zone Map" (12/61-1/62) re/ fears from Coronado residents that they may lose their Coronado Postmark proved false. Zone 18 was one of the first zones established in San Diego.
