

OLD GLOBE THEATRE
SIMON EDISON CENTRE FOR THE PERFORMING ARTS

June 9, 1983

Dear Darlene,

It is not the same without Lowell. But know that our dedication of Festival '83 to his memory is an act of love.

In fact, all that we do in the future, will be, in some way, a tribute to what he built here.

All who loved him, therefore, will have these moments of theatre as a continuing tribute to the extraordinary role he played in our lives.

With love,
